Most Common Reasons for Corrective Actions (NC BCCCP and WISEWOMAN Monitoring)

1. Failure to draw down funding on a capitated (per woman served) basis.
2. Not providing patient navigation needs assessment (and care plan if indicated) for women who have abnormal findings.
3. Not conducting regular chart audits.
4. Providing services to patients who are not eligible.
5. Not having documentation of results of referrals.
6. Failure to document follow up on WISEWOMAN clients with alert-value findings within one week or documenting reason why this was not done.
7. Paying more than the allowed rate for services or paying for services not allowed.
